

Longdown Road, Lower Bourne, Farnham, Surrey

Price Guide £1,175,000

Longdown Road, Lower Bourne, Farnham, Surrey

This stunning architect designed and refurbished house is accessed from a private lane, in a very desirable area of the Bourne. The house has not been offered to the open market since the 1960's.

The house sits centrally in a beautiful garden plot of 0.5 acres with far reaching views over forestry commission land.

It features split levels, with the entrance level hosting a light and spacious open-plan kitchen/dining/family room which has triple-aspect views, a utility room, and access to the garage.

Ascending the stairs leads to the next level, you'll find a sitting room with wood burner and terrace as well as access to a bedroom, and a shower room. The upper level completes the accommodation with two additional bedrooms and a new family bathroom. All the rooms have views of woodland beyond.

The house has recently been refurbished (2023) which added the new open plan kitchen, dining sitting area and new electrics.

Planning is approved (for perpetuity) to convert the garage into a home working space and for a solar array to the roof.

There is ample parking and turning, and the property is discreetly positioned ensuring a high level of privacy.
